

Prominent Albertans

Artistic contributors	Adam Gregory (musician) Bob Edwards (journalist) Douglas Cardinal (architect) Martyn Godfrey (author) W. O. Mitchell (author) Sigmund Brouwer (author) Barbara Paterson (artist) Terri Clarke (country music artist)
Political contributors	Ernest Manning (Premier) Peter Lougheed (Premier) Preston Manning (national political leader) Joe Clark (Prime Minister) Sir James Lougheed (first dairy farmer in Calgary) Lois Hole (Lieutenant Governor of Alberta) Nellie McClung (one of the Famous Five) Emily Murphy (one of the Famous Five) Henrietta Muir Edwards (one of the Famous Five) Louise McKinney (one of the Famous Five) Irene Parlby (one of the Famous Five) William Aberhart (Premier) Chief Crowchild (director, Indian Association of Alberta) Walking Buffalo (chief, active in Indian Association of Alberta) Victoria Calihoo (famous Métis) Lucien Maynard (Francophone politician) Alexander Rutherford (Alberta's first premier) Grant MacEwan (Lieutenant Governor of Alberta) Elijah Harper (First Nations politician) Audrey Poitras, (Métis, politician)
Sporting contributors	Kevin Martin (curler) Jarome Iginla (hockey player) Karen Percy-Lowe (skier) Kurt Browning (figure skater) Catriona Le May Doan (speed skater)
Other	John Ware (rancher) Tom Baines (zoo keeper) Herbert Marshall McLuhan (communications pioneer) Guy Weadick (started the Calgary Stampede) Francis Winspear (business person) Marjorie Montgomery Bowker (judge) Dr. Mary Percy Jackson (doctor) Father Albert Lacombe (francophone priest) Delia Gray (instrumental in Canadian Native Friendship Centres) Teresa Wiskeyjack (president of the Métis Association) Eric Newell (corporate leader)